

ONTARIO CURRICULUM WEB RESOURCES

There is a lot of "stuff" on the web. To save you time I've highlighted only sites that directly connect to the Ontario Curriculum. Life is too short! All links are current as of August 20/2009..... Enjoy!

- <http://schools.tdsb.on.ca/asit/standards/btstart> / <http://web.me.com/btintdsb>
Okay so I'm a tad biased but pretty much the whole "ball of wax" for Beginning Teachers (& Mentors) is here....blogs, podcasts, videos, and lots of resource sharing!

- <http://www.edu.gov.on.ca/eng/teachers/buildingfutures/resources.html>
All Ministry of Education resources in 1 place (sweet!)

- <http://www.tdsb.on.ca/equity> / <http://www.tdsb.on.ca/character>
TDSB's public site features outstanding inclusive curriculum and character development resources

- <http://www.gsc.amdsb.ca>
Avon-Maitland's site geared specifically to elementary students and teachers. Tons of relevant links for all areas of the curriculum (K – 8)

- <http://linktolearning.com> / <http://www.linktolearning.com/secondary>
Web links and resources for many areas of the curriculum. Especially useful as a starting point for Junior/ Intermediate students researching specific topics in Science and Social Studies (K – 12)

- <http://www.osstf.on.ca/Default.aspx?DN=46e4236a-de58-4274-bcbb-8e662027eb10>
Part of OSSTF site – comprehensive set of links to subject associations sorted by curricular area (K – 12)

- <http://www.media-awareness.ca/english/teachers/index.cfm>
Media Awareness Network -- features a database of media lesson plans that can be searched by panel & topic (K - 12)

- <http://www.edselect.com>
Pat Elliot's site – extensive collection of links for all areas of the Ontario Curriculum (K – 12)

- <http://www.curriculum.org/csc/resources.shtml>
A large set of teacher friendly (and classroom used) resources from Curriculum Services Canada (K – 12)
