

Settlement Services in Elementary Schools and Libraries

What your Settlement Worker does?

Your Settlement Workers connect you with your school and community resources. Information sessions are organized for you to learn more about life in Canada. You will meet experts who can support you in achieving your goals and making a strong start in building your resources and networks.

Settlement Worker supports families by providing links to

- free government and community resources (housing, health, legal issues, etc.)
- employment resources & employment preparedness programs
- your child's school, enabling you to help your child succeed
- language training
- filing Federal Income Tax Return
- application forms for Permanent Resident Card, Health Card, etc.
- child Tax Benefits
- and much more

How to contact your Settlement Worker:
